DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-6, 9-26, 28-30, 32-48, 51-62 are allowed over prior art.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claims 2-5, 9-10, 28-30 and 41-48, the prior art fails to teach a breast compression paddle for use with an x-ray mammography machine having an inclined portion with flexible section for compression of the breast with a second force as claimed in independent claims 2-5, 9, 28, 30, 41 and 45.

Regarding claims 6, 21-26, 32, 39 and 40, the prior art fails to teach a method of improving compression of the middle and interior breast tissue in a mammography system by tilting (pivoting) of a bucky assembly or tiltable cover on the bucky assembly toward a paddle as claimed in claims 6, 21, 24, 26, 32, 39 and 40.

Regarding claims 11-13, the prior art fails to teach a method of improving compression of the middle and interior breast tissue in a mammography system by compressing the breast tissue with an inclined compression surface located on a bucky assembly and hinged at a location away from an x-ray source so that the hinge does not obstruct the imaging of the posterior breast tissue where the breast joins the chest wall as claimed in independent claim 11.

Regarding claims 14-19, the prior art fails to teach a mammography method by compressing middle and anterior portions of the breast with a second force from an included compression surface and applying the second force beginning at an outward end of a first compression force to a middle and anterior areas to compress them with the component of the second force being normal to the chest wall and being insufficient to force the initially compressed posterior tissue towards the ribs and out of the imaging area as claimed independent claim 14

Regarding claims 18-20, the prior art fails to teach that the first compression force is in the range of 25 to 40 pounds and the subsequent, second compression force is in the range of about 1- to 15 pounds as claimed in dependent claim 18.

Regarding claims 33-38, the prior art fails to teach a bucky for use with an x-ray mammography wherein the bucky is controllably tiltable in relation to a compression paddle as claimed in independent claims 33-35.

Regarding claim 51-58, the prior art fails to teach a paddle for a mammographic machine having a first posterior fixed section with a surface extending outwardly of the chest wall for compressing the posterior breast tissue and an x-ray transparent hinge section on the paddle between the posterior section and the anterior section at a location outwardly of the chest wall for hinging the sections together for relative movement to each other as claimed in independent claims 51, 52 and 54.

Regarding claim 59-62, the prior art fails to teach a method of compressing a breast in mammography by providing a movable second section on a paddle joint to a first rigid section at a common point spaced outwardly of the chest wall by predetermined distance of at least several centimeters and the second section being movable relative to the first section for compression of the middle and anterior tissue with a lesser compression force which is less than the first compression force as claimed in independent claim 59.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
